INAUGURATED WITH FIVE EX CITING EVENTS.

The Sport Excellent, Finishes Exciting, and Betting Good-The Favorites Successful.

The fall meeting of the New Memphis Jockey Club was inaugurated yesterday with five exciting events, all of them well contested. The weather was not auspicious. The wind blew stiff and too cool to be pleasant, filling the air with clouds of fine dust, the sky was overcast, and late in the afternoon a few drops of rain fell. It grew colder as the sun declined, and those who had failed to provide themselves with overcoats were not so comfortable as they might have been. There were quite a number of ladies on the grand stand and on the portico of the clubhouse. Among them were noted Misses Ham mond, Montgomery, Sneed, Pointer, Danavant, Mallery, Neely, Thompson, Milburn, Lightburne, Bass, Brickley, Lyon, Galloway, Grosvenor and Bruce, and Mesdames Falls, Jones, Doyle, Miller, Arnold, Montgomery, Duravant and Duffy, Though the crowd was not large, the country people being in the midst of their cotton gathering, it was very creditable for the opening day, and the weather considered, unusually so. A better humored crowd never assembled at any race course, and the betting was ss lively as the most euthusiastic old sport could have desired. The inducements to bet were great, so evenly matched were many of the starters, HORSE-Owner can have by proving property and paying charges.
PHILIP GRANT, cor. Beale and Origans. and so well were the various events filled up. Besides, the first three races were less than a mile, making it DIAMOND HAIR-PIN-Will be rewarded largely a matter of start as to finish. The minority had a slim showing, all LEATHER BOX-Containing dray re-ceipts. Leave at this office and te re-warded. of the favorites winning except Faster in the first race, who allowed Ovid to heat him under the string. The biggest field was in the second race, when there were twelve starters and the finish a close one. The steeplechase was one of the prettiest ever sean on the track, the favorite easily winning, by careful riding. The fox hunt, which inaugurated the day's MULES—On the night of Oct. 3d, 3 miles one about four years old, in good fix and trimmed up, with little white spot under jaw; the other, ten or twolve years old, rough, and not so well trimmed. Reward for information, or return of mules to J. W. Young, Memoria, or W. T. PRICE, Collierville, Tenn. sport, was too brief to be interesting, but still long enough to give those who had never witnessed anything of the kind some idea of that arcient pastime. A dozen hounds were unleashed, and after caresring for about ten minutes over the field opened hot upon Reynard's trail, forc-MARE-One dark roan pany built mare, 15 hands high. ing him into the open and making short work of him in plain view of the grand stand, half a dozen horsemen riding nobly in at the death of the little fox. Reynard's murder was soon forgotten, however, in the ex-To BUY COTTAGE—Five or stx rooms. citing sport which followed, the voices of the book makers drowning the books of the bounds and clouds of dust cast up by the flying horses hiding the jury of inquest about the corpse of Sir Reynard from view. FIRST RACE. In the first race, five furlorgs, there were five entries—Ovid, F ster, Voicano, Nioa B. and Virginia. Faster was a favorite from the first, but found so many takers that the odds on him were rapidly cut down. Ovid was next choice, though Nina B. was quietly bought for a winner by a great many knowing ones. A great deal more money was put up the favorite, however, than all the others put together. The start was ersily made, Ovid taking the drum at its tap and leading all the way round. The whip was not used by any of the ock ey. Faster coming in second by three lengths, Nina B. third. ERCOND RACE. The second was a dash of seven furlence, the starters, twelve in number, being Slickaway, Dawn of Day, Hattie Carliele, Mona, Dogovan, Climax, Gov. Bate, Brilliant, Finality, Du e of Coonaught, Rose and Roger Eastman. The spor's were at first un-certain in their decision between Mona and Climax, but when a break was at last made towards the latter it was tumultuously followed, Finslity and Rose also being taken freely for a place, though few backed either to win. The start, a scattering one, gave Mona the advantage and until they neared the string she looked like a winner. Climax closed in upon her as they rounded the turn, and the pace down the stretch was very hot, the Duke making a superbeff rt for a hundred yards that captured and enthused the crowd. He could not keep up his lick, however, and as they neared the goal Watch 'Em slipped by him. Rose closed in and while Climax capped it by half a length, the two made a splendid effort for second place, which was awarded by the judges to Rose, Finlity third and Mona fourth, her Lose egainst Climax's haunch. It was LVERYBODY—To call and see the cele-brated Gypey Clairvoyant, at 177 Taird strost, near Poplar. SIFUATION—As porter or house boy; can give city references. The third was almost if not quite as exciting as the preceding event There were n'ne s'asters—Bob Swimm, Watch 'Em, Morarch, Tony Pastor, Twilight, Violiu, Loroy, Little Joe and Particiat. The stable boys thought it would do to "Watch Em," and their tips on him were freely taken. Tony Pastor had his backers by the legion, and the knowing ones liked Little Joe, DAY BOARDERS-OF wi houtrooms, At 02 East Court street. STAMPING AND EMBROIDERING-To but Petticcat was a prime favorite and sold freely. Monarch got away in the lead, but soon fell back into the bunch, Tony Pestor taking his place and moving along at a gait that made MAY'S EMPORIUM.

The pace home was terrific, Perticont gaining at every jump and winning by a short length, Little Joe sga lant rec-ond, Watch'em and Leroy dividing the honors of third place. Twilight appeared in the distance.

POURTH BACK, Mona and Hattie Carlisle were scratched for the fourth race, mile and an eighth, leaving Warrington, Jim Nave, Luan, Emma Maniey, Gray Cond and Berbers to fight it our, which they did with a will. They got away well together, Jim Nave tearing ahead like a qua ter horse for a hun Wife are in favor of organizing a Switch-ica will meet at MIKE O'NEIL'S, No. 112 Kansas avenue, October Sth. at s. m. in superb style, winning by a short length; Barbara scend, Ligan a good third and Jim Nave fourth.

THE STEEPLY CHASE.

The steeplechase was as pretty as one could have desired, the stariers, who were Aurelian, Sloeum, Judge Burnett, Hop Sing and Claude Brancos, keeping well tog-ther, first one and then the other leading. Aurelian, a b'g favorite, was amperbly ridden and won hands down, Slocum's effort to down him resulting in a dimal fail-ure as soon as the flat was reached, Hop Sing getting second money.

A Self Evident Truth.

It is getting to be every day more apparent that the simplest remedies are the most effective in performing cures, and this is especially true in the case of the diseases of the stomach, from which few are entirely free. Long continued neglect of familiar symptoms is sometime daugerous, Hence it is important to check indigestion in its incipiency. The next time you have a headace or heartburn, try a piece of Ko-Ko-Tu'u. Every-body keeps it. It is the best, the essiest, the swestest and most palatable remedy dver devised.

this country. FRANCIS FENTRESS, recently appointed Supervisor of Elections by Judge Howell E. Jackson, arrived in the city yesterday and is stopping at the Pen-body Hotel. He will remain here until his appointments of supervisors for this county are completed.

THE HON, A. F. DILWORTH, EX-Secretary of State of Mississippi, a bosom riend of Jefferson Davis and the late Jacob Thompson, is in the city. It has been years since Mr. Dilworth visited $35, Paragon (105) $2, Volcano (105) $2, Bixbv (102) $3, S ickaway (102) $2, Memphis, and he was at once struck with the unpraceden ed growth that has attended her. THE ladies of the Central Baptist Church will give a very interesting entertainment on Friday evening next, in the lecture rooms of the church. The entertainment will consist of tableau, music, etc. Prof. Branner will have charge of the music and it will no doubt be very enjoyable. The tableaus are of various kinds and will be quite interesting. The admission is only 25 cents, and children 10 cents.

for several years has been managing the St. Clair Hotel, will, with his wife, leave for Memphis, where he will assume the menagement of the Gayoso, one of the finest hotels in the Sunny Southland. His last days at the St. Clair are being made happy ones by the resident guests at the house, to whose solid comfort he has so long given his time and attention. Mr. Roth will be missed at the St. Clair, and that his services have been appreciated, the array of gifts bestowed upon himself and charming better half speak with far more emphasis than can be given mere words. Two employes of the house surprised them with a solid mahogony writing deak. The resident guests, not to be our done, presented an elegant parlor cabinet, a hammered brass lamp and several Hungarian and royal Worcester vases. Upon the cards that were tied by silken ribbons to the cabinet were the names of the doners: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar T. Rupel, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H.
